This matter is before the Court with the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Jacqueline D. Austin (“Report and Recommendation”), made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and Local Civil Rule 73.02 of the District of South Carolina.¹ Anthony Derome Richardson (“Richardson” or “Petitioner”), proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis, brought this petition seeking a writ of habeas corpus under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. (DE 1.)

Petitioner filed a writ of habeas corpus on March 26, 2021, challenging his conviction in the Union County Court of General Sessions for multiple counts of distributing counterfeit CDs and DVDs. (DE 1.) On June 11, 2021, Respondent Warden of Trenten Correctional Institution (“Warden” or “Respondent”) filed a return and memorandum to the Petition (DE 17) and a Motion to Dismiss (DE 18). Respondent contends among other things that a requirement for seeking federal habeas relief is that the Petitioner must be “in custody” for the conviction and sentence he seeks to challenge as unlawful, citing Maleng v. Cook, 490 U.S. 488, 490–91, 494, 109 S.Ct. 1923,

104 L.Ed.2d 540 (1989) (per curiam) (holding that a habeas petitioner must be “‘in custody’ under the conviction or sentence under attack at the time his petition is filed” and that a petitioner’s failure to establish the in custody element prevents a federal habeas court from exercising subject matter jurisdiction). (DE 17, p. 10.) Petitioner does not dispute that he is not in custody for his distributing counterfeit CDs and DVDs conviction.

The Court issued an Order pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) advising Petitioner of the summary judgment/dismissal procedure and the possible consequences if he failed to adequately respond to the motion on June 14, 2021. (DE 19.) Petitioner then filed a response in opposition to the Motion to Dismiss on October 1, 2021. (DE 34.) Respondent filed a reply on October 8, 2021. (DE 35.) On October 27, 2021, the Magistrate issued a Report recommending Respondent’s Motion to Dismiss be granted because among other things the Court lacks jurisdiction over this action because Petitioner is no longer in custody for the counterfeit recording conviction. (DE 41.)

Petitioner filed no objections to the Report and Recommendation. In the absence of objections to the Report and Recommendation, this Court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983). The Court must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005).

Upon review of the Report and Recommendation and the record in this case, the Court adopts the Report and Recommendation and incorporates it herein by reference.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the Respondent’s Motion to Dismiss is granted, and Richardson’s Petition is dismissed for failure to state a plausible claim for relief for the Court to exercise jurisdiction. Further, it is ORDERED that a certificate of appealability is denied because Petitioner has failed to make “a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right.” 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
